

A DALLAS HANSON FILM

REDLINE

A POLITICAL THRILLER

PRESENTED BY UNITED WORLD MEDIA GROUP

ABOUT

REDLINE THE FILM

Redline is a gritty, dark social-political, thriller about a mysterious deadly virus, EL 8, sweeping through the poor area of Grantland, also known as The Ruins. Redline explores themes such as social and economical inequalities, and secret societies. This gritty world is examined through the perspective of Grantland detective, Darius Jackson, and his estranged wife, Cynthia "Cyn" Jackson. Cyn and Darius lost their 3-year old son, Darius "DJ" Jackson Jr., to the EL 8 virus. This tragedy caused Cyn to go down a rabbit hole of conspiracies, questioning the origins of the virus, and the seemingly manufactured harsh conditions of The Ruins. This obsession is not well received by Darius. Darius's detective background allows him to only operate in facts, and what can be proven, not conjecture and conspiracies. Thus, causing an irreparable strain on their marriage, causing them to separate. But the events that unfold forces them to need each other more than ever.

TRAILER

Redline is a political thriller created by Dallas Hanson. As a pandemic sweeps through the poor area of Grantland, called the Ruins, Cyn and Darius discover a more sinister plan is at play.

The image features three individuals in silhouette, seated around a table in a dark, atmospheric setting. The person on the left is a man with glasses, the person in the center is a woman, and the person on the right is a man in a suit. They appear to be in a professional meeting or interview. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light source, creating a dramatic, low-key lighting effect.
